[NOTE: 4th Saturday in August 1833: A letter of dismissal was granted to HGW and his wife provided they should move. Also HGW and 3 others to be sent with a letter to the Salem Association. (Gilead Baptist Church DAR Records.) HGW and his wife were not listed on the 1834 Personal Property Records in Hardin Co., KY; however, from time to time he continued to perform marriages there. They either continued to live there or it was part of his circuit. He had, for many years, visited a number of churches every year. On 20 June 1834, HGW performed his final marriage in Hardin Co, and perhaps ever, when he marries Joshua F. Doney and Angeline Hilton, Wm F. Hilton consents. HGW's name was spelled "H.G. Waggonner", as if someone else may have signed the record for him after he was ill or had died. (From KY Hardin Co Marriages 1793-1862. LDS Microfilm # 0390788.) His place of death is unknown as is his burial place. He may have been transported back to Adair Co., KY, to his home cemetery. Eleanor Ray Best Waggener was buried in Red Mill Cem., Hardin Co., KY. Her son Samuel was buried next to her after his 1862 death, and also his wife Lois Ann YATES WAGGENER HOWSLEY, who died in 1912.]
