Dear Sir

Your letter of the 18th came to hand to day
I am some what surprisid at you wanting me to have an agent to receive my part of the money,
You have been and are now my agent in the State of Ky, and for me to appoint another agent to transact my buisness with my present agent, why; it seems to me it is foolishness and trouble without any profit to eather of us, Now Lon if you are afraid to

Trust me or the Express Company. I am not afraid to trust you, if you follow my instructions, So send the deed, and I
and my wife will sign
and send it back to you and then you can send me by Express, ~~to~~ Memphis Tenn, Care Brown & Starke 246 Ft Street a check for a thousand dollars.
or you can add the rent money to the thousand dollars and send one check for both, ~~after~~ Reserve money enough to pay my part of the taxes and writing the deed and pay yourself, Now Lon I think the
plain and you run no risk, but I run all the

the risk and have to pay the expenses besides, for had I af had the meets and boundrys of
of acers, I could have
expencc at least, I have
months.,

I got a letter from
if he was as mad as a
not give him a power of
said he could have got
dollars for it, and wrote he was hard run for money, and that he made a short crop, and that he wanted me to pay him a small sum I was owing him

also what amount I got from Aunt Rachel's estate, I intend tomorrow to write him, that I will pay him what I owe him when he pays me my part of the amount he owes Uncle Tom's Estate, wouldn't you? and as to how much I got from Aunt Rach why; I shall refer him to Mr Brady, How do you think that will suit Ben?
He is my Uncle, But Lon we are not of the same father He has treated me unfairly to say the least of it, and I have let him know just what
