Dear Sir

I received your letter with the seventy-five dollar check on the German National Bank Memphis a few days ago, have not been to Memphis, but will go through there Monday next, You did not pay yourself out of it for the trouble you were at why did you not?
Neither did you keep out some to pay the taxes, I assure you I appreciate your kindness to me while up there. Sid sends kindest regards to you all, her health is improving slowly, It is my intention to come up just as soon as I lay by my corner say about the middle of June before there is usually any sickness. When not too tired these long nights drop me a few lines just for the sake of keeping your hand in.

Don't forget me at breakfast time, just take a couple of those good hot biscuits and yellow butter for me.

Remember me kindly to all who enquire after me Yours &c
W. A. King
