Death: Following taken from the Carrollton Democrat dated 9 Apr 1898; Page 4 Col 1.

Wm. C Coleman died at the home of his son, Jas W. Coleman, in English, last Saturday night, aged 77 years, 5 months and 14 days. Uncle Billie was a clever, good natured, kind man. In early days he was a school teacher, but was a farmer most of his life. His first wife was Miss Ann Sims, whom he married May 4, 1844. They became the parents of 13 children, five of whom are living - two in this place, Van C and Mrs Emma Leep. His wife having died in 1878, in 1881 he married Miss Kittie Higgins of Louisville. The latter died about two years ago. Deceased had long been a member of the Presbyterian church. After brief funeral services at English Christian Church, the remains were buried in the family graveyard in that neighborhood.
