Notes HUSBAND - Samuel RUBARTS First mention I have found is the 1796 Mason County, Ky tax list. I believe that he went to Ohio. Samuel is listed on the tax list for Adams County, Ohio. First showed up in Casey county in 1813. He bought 212 acres on the Green River. This land was adjacent to that of John Rubarts. John bought his land while it was Lincoln County, later becoming part of Casey County. Samuel's grandson, Mathias Miller, moved to Texas in 1856. In the book "Biographical Souvenier of Texas" published in 1889, in the writeup for Mathias, it states that Samuel was born in Indiana. Where this came from, I am not sure. Samuel fathered a child out of marriage in Mason Co., KY. He was ordered to pay $10 by the county. CHILD 1 - Cinthia RUBARTS 1850 Casey co, Ky census says born in Ohio, age 52 would be born about 1798. 1870 Casey census says age 75, born in Ky. 1880 Casey co, Ky census says born in Ohio, age 86 would be born about 1794. She was living with son William H. and family beginning with the 1870 census.. CHILD 2 - Edmond H RUBARTS First shows on Casey tax list in 1817 with one horse valued at $25, last entry on 1833 tax list. In 1823, he operated a store, owned 30 acres. There is an entry on the LDS site saying he was born in 1813 in Lincoln County. This can't be true as he appears here in 1817 as a white male over 21 in 1817. CHILD 3 - John RUBARTS Some information comes from book "Early Days in Greenbush". John was a soldier in the Black Hawk War. Son Marion died in the Civil War while fighting for the Union Army. CHILD 4 - Milton Byron RUBERTS He served as a private in the Black Hawk War. Enlisted 5 May 1832 in Morgan Co. as a private. He served in Capt. Arnett's Co., 1st Regt., 3rd Brigade Illinois Mounted Volunteers. Appointed Sergeant Major. CHILD 5 - William B RUBARTS The birth place of Lincoln County is from the LDS site. I never found Samuel nor any of his children while looking at the early tax list for Lincoln County. CHILD 7 - Vincent C RUBARTS There is a girl Edna 1885 - 1905 buried in the small cemetery with him. Who is she? CHILD 9 - George W RUBARTS His birth & death dates on the LDS site I believe are incorrect. These dates belong to the George W. Rubarts that is buried in the Rubarts/Pelley cemetery and is a son of John & Sarah Rubarts. This George is listed in Samuel's will along with his 3 children. I have never seen them listed on any census.
