

I, Jacob S. Baker of the County of Muhlenberg and State of Kentucky being of sound mind and disposing memory do make and publish this as my last will and testament.

First I will that all my just debts be paid in full

Second, I will that a suitable monument be erected over my grave.

Third I will and bequeath to my beloved wife Nettie Baker, all my property both real and personal, and of whatsoever kind and nature.

I nominate and appoint J. S. Depoyster of Dummorsky my Executor to carry into effect the decrees of this will.

In witness whereof I have hereunto signed my name the 20th day of November, in the year of our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Ninety Seven.

Witness to Work, Morton Hyatt.

State of Kentucky,
Muhlenberg County Court,

April Term 1899.

The foregoing Instrument of writing, purporting to be the last will and testament of Jacob S. Baker, deceased, was this day produced in open court and proven by the oaths of P. S. Milton, A. J. Templeton and Martin K. Youts, the three subscribing witnesses thereto to be the act and deed of said decedent, whereupon the same is adjudged to be the last will and testament of Jacob S. Baker, deceased and was ordered to be recorded which has been done accordingly.
