

I declare this to be my last will and testament.

I give and bequeath to my wife Margaret all the property of every description, personal real and mixed of which I may die possessed; with full power to dispose of the same in such manner as to her may seem fit.

Given under my hand and seal this twenty Second day of June, in the year of our lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty One, at the City of San Francisco, California,
 D. C. Buell (Seal)

In presence of E. V. Sumner, Brig. Gen. U. S. A.
 Saml. Woods Maj. U. S. A.
 Richard C. Drum Capt. U. S. A.

Codicil:

In case my wife, Margaret, mentioned in the foregoing will dated at San Francisco, California, on the twenty Second day of June,
 in the year One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty One, should die before me; or if ~~surviving~~ surviving me, she should not make disposition by will or otherwise, of the estate bequeathed to her in the foregoing instrument of writing, then, in either case, I declare it to be my will and desire that my step daughter Annie Mason daughter of my said wife by her former husband General Richard Barnes Mason shall be sole and absolute heir to all of the estate or property, of whatever description, of which I may die possessed; and that the property or estate herein bequeathed to my said step daughter shall be free from any control of her future husband should she choose to marry.

The word "surviving" misspelt in the fourth line ^{from the top} of this page, is erased and the word "survivoing", interlined is substituted.

In witness whereof, I have hereto set my hand and seal this eighth day of January,
 in the year One Thousand eight hundred and Sixty Seven, at Andrie, Kentucky.

State of Kentucky,
 Muhlenberg County Court,
 November term, 1898,

The foregoing last will and testament of

D. C. Buell, deceased, was on the date above written, produced in court and proven by the oaths of Charles Eaves and M. F. Melody to be, both body and signature, in the hand writing of said decedent, whereupon the same is adjudged to be the last will and testament of said decedent, and is ordered to be recorded which has been done accordingly.

Given under my hand this 15th day of December, 1898,
