

Robert G. Write This is my last will & testament I now will my land to my ~~son~~ two boys I want it to be equally divided between them I want Samuel Lopett to sell property a nuff to pay all my just debts
I then will all the ballance of my property to my wife Elizabeth Write During her widow hood & if she marries I then want my property all sold & equally divided Among all my children I want the boys to help maintain the widow & Sister this the 19th day of December 1844

Jacob Gopett
Samuel Gopett
Leaves Watkins

This day Jacob Gopett & Samuel Gopett made oath before John Campbell a Justice of the Peace for Schlenberg County that the above is the will of Robert G. Write while he lay on his death bed & wish them to have it attended to Given under my this 14th day of December 1844

John Campbell J.P.

See paid 1/25
Watkins

Muhlenberg County Ga

December County Court 1874

The foregoing writing purporting to be the Concupative Bill of Robert G. Bright deceased was exhibited into court by the witnesses thereto which being examined by the court & proved to be the act & deed of the said Robert by the oaths of Jacob Gopeth Samuel Gopeth & Lewis Watkins the subscribing witnesses thereto which is thereupon admitted to & truly recorded at [Signature]