Notes for ELIAS HUFFMAN:

Elias Huffman is buried at Cave Hill Cemetery, Sec. A, Lot 170, Part, Range, Grave 2-A in Louisville, KY

I, CPBarnwell, do not believe all names under children of Elias are his and Mary Adams children. It is possible some could be spouses of children. My info was found in USGenWeb Archives by: Martha Easter submitted Tues., Aug. 10, 1999. This is info she copied from a Bible found in the hands of Elias and Mary's grandchildren Greg, Bess and Mary Collier of Prospect, Ky. The records state Elias was an Elder in the Goshen Presbyterian Church, LaGrange, Ky. and that he appears to be son of John and Margaret Barrick Huffman. Other names in this Bible were: Francis Adams b. May 15, 1776 d. July 10, 1834 ( fa of Mary the =) ; Mary (Kirkwood) Adams

b. May 10 1776 d. Oct 12, 1850 (m of Mary the w of Elias ; Nancy Adams b. Nov 1800=20 ; John D Adams b. Dec 08, 1802 ; Maragaret Adams b. Feb 15, 1804 ; Francis A Adams b. Oct 08, 1805 ; Eveline Adams b. Sept 21, 1807 ; Grandison C Adams b. March 07, 1813.

In that old house was a silver plated goblet and a pitcher that Elias gave to the Goshen Presbyterian Church for communion. When the church upgraded the communion service they gave the old one back to the Colliers.

About the history of a chapel that was, unfortunately, not preserved.

(from the book HISTORY & FAMILIES OLDHAM COUNTY, KENTUCKY by OLDHAM COUNTY Historical Society)

...the story of the first Presbyterian Church in Goshen whose origins go back 150 years...one of the earliest Presbyterian churches in the state of KENTUCKY, organized in 1825...first place of meeting was a community center...then a log structure which burned in 1887..new bldg. built that same year sold at auction 1984...in the 1890's a chapel was established at the foot of Goshen Lane...at first it was called West Goshen Presbyterian Church...later it was renamed Rule Memorial Chapel in honor of its founder, the Rev. John Rule. It was also called "The Bottom Church". In 1956 the church closed. There is nothing left of this chapel now except the trees and flowers that once surrounded it. This is a place I knew as a child. We are saddened to have lost this part of Oldham Counties History.

Surnames: Huffman, Adams, Barrick

I have learned through a family Bible that Elias Huffman (b.1803 d. 1877 in KY) was an Elder in the Goshen Pres. Church of LaGrange. No dates. I have also learned that the Bible was found in the old log cabin where 3 of Elias's grandchildren lived in 1950. It is noted the cabin was on the left of Old River Rd leaving Louisville and crossing into Oldham Co line. I am anxious to find more info on Elias and his wife Mary Adams. It was note that Elias's parents were John and Margaret Barrick Huffman. Any info that anyone has on this Huffman lineage would be more than appreciated.

Notes for FRANCIS BYRON HUFFMAN:

Francis Byron Huffman was a veteran of WW I. He was a sign painter by trade and traveled several states to do his paintings. He also worked as a mechanic at the Calhoun Hotel in Anderson, SC. Francis died of cancer at "Fleetwood" the Smith Family home where he and his wife Antonia Smith Huffman lived for many years when they returned to Belton from Anderson he and Antonia are buried in the Smith plot in Belton City Cemetery, Belton, SC.

More About FRANCIS BYRON HUFFMAN:

Burial: Belton Cemetery

Notes for WILBUR ANTONIA SMITH:

W. Antonia Smith attended Winthrop College, Rock Hill, SC but did not complete her studies. She returned to Belton and taught school there for a while. She cared for her sister "Bess" until her death with tuberculosis. Antonia was sent to Asheville, NC for a period of time to recoup from the care of her sister and to be cared for herself to make sure she had not contracted the disease. After her marriage and birth of her two daughters her family moved to Anderson. She was very active at St John's Methodist Church. After the girls were in high school and college they moved back to "Fleetwood" her fathers home place. She was a house wife, active in Latimer Mem. Meth. Church (SS Class carries her name and a stain class window is placed there in her memory today 2003)

Notes for ANTONIA BYRD HUFFMAN:

Antonia Byrd Huffman graduated Belton high School, Belton, SC and Winthrop College, Rock hill, SC. She worked with the Red Cross, and other work before her marriage. Her family moved to Millport, Ala after her husbands retirement from the Navy where he had farm land. She taught in the schools there for several years. They moved to St Simons Is, Ga where she taught school and Owen worked at Glenco Navy Air Base. They retired and moved back to Millport. Byrd had an art studio added to the home place on Black St. and taught painting classes to the locals in the small town. Some of her paintings were purchased and hung in several businesses and she was hired to do a Mural for a bank over in Columbus, Miss. Her most famous painting to the family was that of "Fleetwood", the old Smith home place in Belton, SC. Her husbands health and her health began to fail before it was completed. The painting of the house is just as her children and her sisters children remember it. Her Neice Connie encouraged her and gave her photos to start the painting. Connie has it in her home in Williamston, SC. Byrd is in an assisted living home in Fayette, Ala.

1930 US Fed Census list Precilla Huffman age 84 living with Henry and Josephine Huffman. The family farms and lives in Louisville, Jefferson Co., Ky.

Notes 01/20/2009 sent by Martha Easter of Daytona Beach, Fla.

James Emmett Huffman died 1945 and is burried in Brownsboro Cemetery.

His father and mother, Henry Bell and Josephine Stonestreet Huffman died in Athens Alabama and are burried in the Athens Cemetery in Limestone County. Henry Bell died 1951 and Josie died 1953. They are in lot 1237 right next to my grandparents, R B Stonestreet and Mary Rose Huffman. R. B.'s parents were James Andrew and Josephine Ray Stonestreet. I believe the parents of Josie Stonestreet gave my Grandfather an opportunity to go to school to learn to read and write in exchange for chores. He had been left a ward of his uncle who did not give him that opportunity.

In old age Uncle Henry and Aunt Josie fell on hard times and my grandfather paid his dept to Josie's mother by moving them to Alabama and providing a home for them. ( I just realized that I used the term Aunt Josie and Uncle Henry. They were not real Aunts and Uncle. It was a term because my Grandfather was raised with Aunt Josie. They were I think 1st cousins to my Grandfather but we always called them Aunt and Uncle)
