Dear Madam:

Reference is made to your request for the Revolutionary War record of Job Garvey.

The data furnished herein were obtained from papers on file in the pension claim, W. 8839, based upon the military service of Job Garvey, the only soldier by that name that is found in the Revolutionary War records of this office.

Job Garvey enlisted in Westmoreland County, Virginia, about 1777, served as private in Captains Richard Barnett's and Henry Fountleroy's Virginia companies; was in the battles of Monmouth, Paulus Hook, in the siege of Charleston and the siege of Fort Mifflin and was in a skirmish with the Indians near Savannah, Georgia, under General Anthony Wayne and was discharged in 1782. He later enlisted and served eighteen months in Captain Warman's Virginia company.

He was allowed pension on his application executed October 26, 1818, while a resident of Gallatin County, Kentucky, then aged fifty-eight years.

He died January 20, 1827.

This soldier married February 7, 1781, in Richmond County, Virginia, Elisabeth, her maiden name not given.

She was allowed pension on her application executed September 13, 1838, while a resident of Owen County, Kentucky, at which time she was seventy-two years of age.

Their children were:

John	born January	27, 1782.
Genny	" February	17, 1786.
Nancy	" January	25, 1788.
Fanny	" May	8, 179- (torn).
Sammuel	" August	31, 1794.
Jeramia	" December	1, 1797.
Elizabeth	" November	--, ---0 (torn).
Polley	" October	13, ---- (illegible).

One Jeremiah Garvey was justice of peace in Owen County, Kentucky, in 1838, no relationship stated.

Sincerely yours

A. D. HILLER
