Revolutionary Claim
Act June 7, 1832

Recorded by Dan Boyd Cler
Book C Vol 7 Page 25

State of Kentucky } } On this 7th day of September County of Campbell } } eighteen hundred and thirty three, personally appeared before me Samuel Baker a Justice of the Peace in and for the county of Campbell and state aforesaid, John Pearson a resident of the County of Pendleton, and state of Kentucky, age seventy three years from the information of his father, -er, who being first duly sworn, according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration, in order to obtain the benefit of an act of Congress passed on the 7th day of June 1832 - And he further states the reason why he makes his declaration in the County of Campbell is that he resided in that County for the space of fifteen or sixteen years, and was, and is now better acquainted in that County than in Pendleton and that his residence is within a few yards of the County line, and the preacher and Capt. Wheeler who certifies for me live in Campbell County, and not more than one mile from me, and the declaration is made at the house of Capt. Wheeler, and further that I belong to the Methodist Church, and that Church is in the said County of Campbell, and the Justice before whom I make my declaration has a more intimate acquaintance with me than any Justice of Pendleton County and it is about 25 miles from where I now live to the Court house of Campbell County and nearly the same distance to Pendleton Court - That he entered the service of the United States in the Twentieth year of his age as stated by his Father, as a drafted man, for the term of three months that he resided in the state of Virginia he thinks but is not certain, but knows positively that it was at Petersburg, under the following named Officers (that is) Capt Cobbs Sullivan, Ensign Walter Gurney, the Lieut's name I do not recollect, and I served out my full term, and had no pay, he entered on the first day of May and was discharged on the first day of August following - Then he entered as a volunteer under Capt James Smith (now known by the name of Indian Salt Smith), and he learned us how to exercise after the Indian manner of exercising, but I do not remember the names of any of the other Officers, and served the time from the first day of August 1775 to the last day of October in the same year, and we were stationed at ~~at~~ Turtle creek twelve miles above Petersburg, and we marched from there to a place called Wallawey, and from there to a place called Nicholas Station, and we were mostly in search of Indians and Tories, and we caught two men that we supposed to be Tories and put them in Hammar town Jail but they made their escape. The name of one of them was Burchelow and the other name was Downey, and then I returned home to my father on the Monongahela River twenty -five miles above Petersburg - In the spring of the year 1776 Col. Cook wrote to Col. George Silandigan, to call out the militia, and got all the Volunteers that he could and on the first day of March I entered as a volunteer under the said Silandigan. Capt Josiah Records was the name of the Capt. The names of the other Officers I have forgotten, they were mostly young men and nearly all killed by the Indians, he served this time from the first day of March to the last day of October making eight months, and we were stationed on the Ohio River all this time, and were employed in in building Block House, and guarding the frontiers from the ravages of the Indians; and on the first day of Nov.

1776 not leaving the Army, I entered under Capt. Saml.
Baker Lieut. James Rankin, Ensign Andrew Poe, and continued on the Ohio River, in the same employ, and at the same place, and this time he served one year that is from the first day of Nov. 1776 to the last day of Oct.
1777, and did not return from this time, but entered for one year more as a volunteer under Capt. William Rogdon, and I believe that the battle name was Vansweearingen he entered on the first day of November 1777, and continued to the last day of Oct. following, making in all three years and two months, and then he returned home again. I was well acquainted with Genl George Washington, and Colo. William Crawford, and his Brother Valentine Crawford, and the Stinson family and I served under Jack Stinson in what was called Dunmore's war for I was out at that time. I was also well acquainted with Simon Girty and James his brother. He also states that he knows of no person that he can prove his service by except the proof of John Reardon, and he hereby relinquishes every claim to a pension or annuity whatever, except the present, and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of the Agency of any state, or territory of the United States.

I swear to and subscribed the day and Year above written

John Reardon, and John Wheeler residing in the aforesaid state and county, hereby certify that we are well.

JOHN BEARDON
S. 4084
BA-J/MLB

Dear Madam:

Reference is made to your letter in which you request the Revolutionary War record of John Beardon (variously spelled), from Pennsylvania, who later lived in Kentucky and died in 1833.

The record of a John Beardon has been found which is possibly that of the one in whom you are interested. His record is given herein as shown in pension claim, S. 4084, based upon his service in the Revolutionary War.

John Beardon was born near Harris Ferry on the Susquehanna River; the date of his birth and names of parents are not given.

While residing near Pittsburgh, and in the twentieth year of his age, he enlisted May 1, 1775, and served three months under Captain Cobe Sullivan. He volunteered August 1, 1775, served under Captain James Smith against Indians and Tories, was discharged October 31, 1775, and returned to his father's home on the Monongahela River, twenty-five miles above Pittsburgh. He volunteered March 1, 1776, served under Captain Josiah Record and Colonel Filandighan, was stationed on the Ohio River building blockhouses and guarding the frontiers against Indians; without leaving the army, he volunteered again November 1, 1776, this time under Captain Samuel Bealer and was engaged as before until October 31, 1777; he did not return home, but volunteered November 1, 1777, for another year, served under Captain William Hogland and Colonel Van Swearingen until October 31, 1778, then returned home. This soldier stated that he served also under Captain Jack Stinson in Dunmore's War, length of service and details not given.

John Beardon lived at his old home near Pittsburgh for many years after his Revolutionary War service. About 1810 he moved from there to Campbell County, Kentucky, where he resided about seventeen years, then moved to Pendleton County, Kentucky.

John Beardon was allowed pension on his application executed September 7, 1833, in Campbell County, Kentucky. He then resided in Pendleton County, Kentucky, within a few yards of the county line of Campbell, and was aged seventy-nine years. He belonged to the Methodist Church in said Campbell County, where more of his acquaintances lived.

John Beardon died February 12, 1833.

It is not stated whether this soldier was ever married and there are no family data whatever except the reference to his father.

Very truly yours

A. D. HILLER
Executive Assistant to the Administrator
