Notes

Carey lost his right arm, just below the elbow, in a farming accident. Family history states that he tied off the stump and drove himself to the doctor! My father also claimed that "Pap Yelton" could side-lift a Model-T off the ground with his one hand.

Carey Menzie Yelton

Carey M. Yelton, aged 76 years, passed on suddenly at his home on Barclay street, Tuesday morning, October 1, 1935, following a heart attack. Mr. Yelton had been in poor health for over a year, but his passing came as a shock to his family and friends.

Mr. Yelton was born in Campbell County near Butler on Feb 12, 1859, and was the son of the late Mortimer and Catherine Newkirk Yelton. He followed the vocation of a farmer until a few years ago, when he retired, and he and Mrs. Yelton came to Falmouth to reside.

On June 12, 1883, Mr. Yelton and Miss Emma Florence Fields were united in marriage, and to this union three children were born. One daughter, Lucy, passed on in infancy. A daughter, Mrs. Clarence Allender of Nicholasville, Jessamine county and a son, Horace J. Yelton of Owenton, Owen county, survive. Besides his devoted widow and children, Mr. Yelton is survived by one sister, Mrs. Kate Montgomery of Liberty Ridge. He is also survived by one half-sister, Mrs. Grace Shipp, and a half-brother, Chester Yelton, of Cincinnati.

Mr. Yelton joined the Lenoxburg Methodist Church in early boyhood and lived a fine Christian life. He was a good father, husband and neighbor, and he will be missed sadly, as his going is the first time the intimate family circle has been broken since the death of the babe years ago.

Funeral services will be held on Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the Falmouth Methodist Church, to be conducted by Rev. E. L. Griffy. Burial will take place in Riverside Cemetery. Funeral directors Thomas and Parramore are in charge of the arrangements.

The casket bearers are Menzie Montgomery, Ernest Montgomery, Arthur Yelton, Ambrose Fields, Kenzie Fields and Earl Allender.

Mrs. C.M. Yelton

Mrs. Florence Yelton, 73, widow of the late C.M. Yelton, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Allender, near Nicholasville, Jessamine Co., Ky. June 17, 1937 following an extended illness.

Her body was brought to the Thomas & Parramore funeral home in Falmouth Thursday and lay in state until the services at the Falmouth Methodist Episcopal(sp) Church Saturday afternoon which were conducted by the Rev. E.L. Griffy. Interment took place in the Riverside Cemetery.

Pall bearers were Kinney Field, Ambrose Field, George Field, Menzie Montgomery, Ernest Montgomery and Arthur Yelton.

Mrs. Yelton was born in this county Jan. 25, 1864, the daughter of the late Harrison and Lucinda Field. She was united in marriage to C.M. Yelton of Concord, Pendleton county, Ky June 12, 1883. He preceded her in death one year and eight months. To this union three children were born, one passing on in childhood. She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Allender, and a son, Horace Yelton of Owen county. Four grandchildren and one great-grandchild also survive.

Mrs. Yelton resided in Falmouth until her husband's death, and here she was loved by her neighbors, relatives and friends. She was a kindly, good woman, wife and mother, and loved her family and friends. During her last days her needs were happily and carefully met by her daughter and her husband, with whom she resided, and she slept away in peace.
